

Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel Institute of Technology, Vasad

Computer Engineering Department

Computer Engineering Department has organized a webinar on on “Safeguarding You and Your Family On Internet” on 21st June 2020. Approximately 35 students of third year computer engineering, their parents and faculties have attended in this webinar. At the end of this webinar, what are the information security threats over internet and what safeguarding measures one should take while using internet applications. They understood how to make security setting while using mobile and internet applications