Chairman Shri Bhaskarbhai Patel, of The New English School Trust always supporting to the students and faculties for this types of workshop. The workshop was very interesting and gave an opportunity to learn many issues in regards of mindset attributes that can help our global competitiveness.

The Rapid, constant, and disruptive change is now the norm, and what succeeded in the past is no longer a guide to what will succeed in the future. Twenty-first-century managers simply don't (and can't!) have all the right answers. To cope with this new reality, companies are moving away from traditional command-and-control practices and toward something very different: a model in which managers give support and guidance rather than instructions, and employees learn how to adapt to constantly changing environments in ways that unleash fresh energy, innovation, and commitment.

In this context, the study found that five attributes mentioned bellow to be the key to help Indian students compete globally.

1. Conscientiousness.
2. Perseverance.
3. Innovativeness.
4. Taking Initiative.
5. Problem Solving.

The workshop is designed to: 1) Provide insight and understanding regarding the key concepts of creation of jobs in face of rapidly globalizing economy 2) discuss practical steps i.e. student led activities will help sustain practice of the five pillars .The feedback of the participants are quite encouraging and our institute is looking forward a number of workshops to organize and trained a large number students in coming couple of months.
