

The Electronics & Communication Engineering Department organized an Industrial Visit to Bioline India Indore on 21/10/2023 for LY & TY students. Total 15 students and 1 Faculty member, Prof. Tushar K. Kulkarni benefited from the visit.

Shri Y. P. Goel (Technical Director) has given an introduction of the company and explained about how products were developed with proper research. Ms. Nidhi Goel (Product Development Head) explained all products working in detail. Neeta Rajeev Goel (CEO) appreciated efforts of SVIT Vasad Management and students to conduct an Industrial visit at Bioline India, Indore, Madhya Pradesh

Bioline India is one of the most reputed entities working as a exporter, manufacturer, supplier and trader of a broad spectrum of Blood Bank Equipments. Bioline India is the first manufacturer in India to develop a Blood Bag Tube Sealer in 2001. Bioline India owns a qualitative range of products Blood Collection Monitor, Automatic Plasma Expresser, Automatic Donor Couch, RH View Box etc.

